Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Peace and all Good!

The next issue of Propositum will be published on-line after Easter. In incorporating the celebration of the 800th anniversary of the Stigmata of St. Francis, the theme for the Propositum will be “Christ, St. Francis and the meaning of suffering in our modern world”

It will be a follow up of the last Propositum in that we are seeking the responses of Third Order members of the congregations on the topics addressed. We hope that the submissions will reflect the personal experiences of the authors.

We will be accepting articles from the sisters and brothers of the member congregations according to the following criteria to allow the article with or without picture or illustration to fit on one page.:

Due Date: February 18, 2024
Length: about 500 words
Photo of author: Optional
Illustration: Optional
Submission: Electronically as a Word document
Include: Name, congregation name, country, and language of the author

Please note that the articles to be published will be selected from those submitted that most closely reflect the theme of the Propositum.

Please send your contributions to: Emanuela Miceli, the Executive Director, at her email: secretary@ifc-tor.org by February 18, 2024. The articles may be edited and then will be translated, formatted, and published on the IFC-TOR website.

Please pass this information on to other members of your congregation who may be interested in this opportunity to share their reflections.

Sr. Frances Marie Duncan
